FINANCIAL GOALS

The following pages are for listing your personal and professional goals. Think about each goal carefully. Is it a goal that is needed, wanted or wished for?

- Needs are those essential goals necessary to maintain a certain lifestyle
- Wants are those goals hoped to be fulfilled someday once essential goals are met
- Wishes are aspirational goals – a “wish” list

This exercise requires ranking each goal from 10-1, based on importance. Needs are most important, followed by Wants and Wishes.

When evaluating each financial goal, identify an Ideal Amount and an Acceptable Amount. The ideal amount is the desired amount. The acceptable amount is the minimum estimated amount needed to spend on this goal. These are after-tax amounts.

For the retirement living expense, there will be an Ideal Retirement Age and an Acceptable Retirement Age. The ideal age is the desired retirement age. The acceptable age is the latest age that you may be willing to retire.

The following pages are organized into three goal categories: retirement living expense goals, college goals and lifestyle goals. Lifestyle goals include goals such as travel, a major purchase or buying a home.

EDUCATION GOALS

These goals are the education funding expenses – college or other educational programs – for self, a child, grandchild or other family member.

Student 1	Estimated Annual Cost

LIFESTYLE GOALS

These goals are personal goals chosen to enhance a certain lifestyle – goals such as travel, a major purchase or buying a new home.

They may be goals for retirement or today. Either way, if they are to be funded using money from investment assets or savings, list each as a lifestyle goal.

Remember, rank goals according to the following scale:

Travel

Create travel goals for an individual trip or any future vacations. A special spot? Or multiple destinations?

Section Three – Risk Tolerance

Risk Tolerance and Investment Preferences

These questions are designed to help develop an asset allocation strategy that addresses specific financial goals. Please review and answer the following questions.

1. Primary objective

Overall objective for this plan is to:

- Produce current income
- Achieve capital appreciation (emphasis on growth of capital, not income)
- Produce a combination of income and capital appreciation

2. Investment Timeframe

The length of time intended to remain invested can play a significant role in designing an appropriate investment strategy. Generally, the longer the investment timeframe, the more risk that can be taken to potentially achieve greater returns (assuming additional risk).

When will the majority of these funds be needed?

- ___ Less than three years
- ___ Three to six years (an average market cycle)
- ___ Seven to 10 years
- ___ Longer than 10 years (several market cycles)

3. Risk/return objectives

Many investors have expectations of earning the high returns of a long-term investment, but feel compelled to liquidate prematurely because of their discomfort with short-term volatility. Identifying acceptable volatility is central to determining an appropriate investment strategy.

Which of the following statements best characterize risk/return objectives?

- ___ Interested in maintaining invested capital and not prepared to accept higher fluctuations in the value of assets.
- ___ Prefer to sustain only moderate fluctuations in the value of assets to achieve moderate returns.
- ___ In order to achieve a higher return, prepared to accept higher fluctuations in the value of assets.

4. Investment characteristics

Which one of the following best characterizes tolerance for risk? Please check one of the following:

- Low risk Some risk Moderate risk Moderately high risk High risk

5. Short-term cash need

Is there a need for cash in the short term?

Yes No

6. Portion of total investable assets in this plan

What portion of total investable assets is reflected in this plan?

Less than 20% 20% to 40% 41% to 60% 61% to 80% More than 80%

7. To what extent should tax-free municipal securities be taken into consideration?

Not at all Minimally Somewhat Significantly Fully

8. Please select which product types should be considered in an asset allocation recommendation.

International equity Emerging markets International fixed income High yield
 REITs Alternative strategies Broad commodities

(Note: If alternative strategies is selected in question 8, please answer questions 9 – 10.)

9. Please indicate willingness to invest with professional money managers who, from time-to-time, may employ the types of investment strategies described in question 10?

Not comfortable Fairly comfortable Very comfortable

10. Is there some familiarity with the following investments or strategies and interest in investing in them again?

Private investment partnerships Hedge funds or managed funds Private equity or venture capital
 Put and/or call options Futures/commodity contracts Short positions
